UNITED STATES TO INVAD MEXICO

MEXICAN MURDER BAND MARCHING ON A SECOND AMERICAN BORDER TOWN

ANOTHER RAIDING PARTY CROSSES THE BORDER—ATTACKS SCORE OF U. S.
RANCHES—VILLA RUSHES TO COVER
IN MOUNTAIN FASTNESSES.

(By International News Service.)

COLUMBUS, New Mexico, March 10.—A rumor here which seems to have considerable substance states a large force of Villa troops are marching on Hachita, New Mexico, with the intention of burning and sacking the town.

Mexicans Again Cross Border.

EL PASO, March 10.—Another large party of Mexican raiders again crossed the international border last night and attacked a score of ranches.
No Americans lost their lives, however, because the bandits found only deserted homes, the inmates having fled to the nearest city. The band recrossed the line at daylight.

It is reported Villa's force has divided into small parties and rushed to cover in the fastnesses of the Mexican mountains.

Funston Asked By Scott Where

Came Authority to Send U. S.

Troops Across International Line

WASHINGTON, March 10.—General Scott, chief of staff, telegraphed General Funston this morning asking where he got his authority to send American troops across the border into Mexico.

"FIRE EXTINGUISHERS"

Don't wonder what kind?

GRUBER-MORRIS HARDWARE CO., Inc.

In the meantime, a dispatch was received by the state department in which General Funston urgently asked permission to be allowed to order a large force of United States soldiers in pursuit of the bandits. The message stated Carranza agents along the entire border favored this step.

General Funston's Reply.

Later today General Funston replied to General Scott that he was without official information, but would forward General Slocum's report stating why American troops had been ordered across the border, as soon as it was received.

All the United States soldiers have withdrawn across the international line and will stay on home territory until Washington decides what is best to be done. Several regiments were today distributed along the border to guard property and prevent future raids. Two companies of troops have been dispatched to Hachita which is understood to be in danger.

Nation Demands Action.

The White House and state department are being deluged with telegrams from all parts of the country demanding action at once. The entire nation is aroused to fever heat over the recent wanton massacre at Columbus. The Democrats and Republicans, alike are clamoring for a new policy which will make the international border safe.

WASHINGTON, March 10 (3:30 p. m.).—
President Wilson has ordered the bandit murderer, Francisco Villa, captured dead or alive. The army of the United States will undertake the gigantic task.

According to official reports the expedition is now being made up to cross the border into one of the most difficult countries on earth for the movement of troops.

After a two-hour cabinet meeting, Secretary
Tumulty issued the following statement:

"An adequate force will be sent at once in pursuit of Villa with the single object of capturing him and putting a stop to his forages. This can and will be done as friendly aid to the constituted Mexican authorities and with scrupulous respect for the sovereignty of that Republic".

5,000 Troops to Move at Once.

Secretary of War Baker hurried from the cabinet meeting to the war department and directed Chief of Staff Scott to at once prepare orders for the movement of troops.

The fact is accepted that the expedition will be composed chiefly of cavalry with supports of infantry and artillery. Not less than 5,000 men in the first force will invade Mexico in search of the bandit.
Officials believe 50,000 may be needed shortly.
General Funston will command the expedition.

* EL PASO, March 10 (3:30 p. m.).—A *
* 'phone message received here at 11:15 a. m., *
* today states Villa has reassembled his men *
* and is again marching on Columbus, New * * Mexico, from the west. He is backed by * * large force. *

SUPERBAS WIN IN LOP-SIDED GAME WITH STETSON

The Brooklyn Nationals defeated Stetson university yesterday afternoon by a score of 10 to 0, before a fair-sized crowd of fans. Dell, Appleton and Colwell on the mound with Mack Wheat receiving, kept the visitors guessing at all stages of the game and a shut-out game was the result, only two hits being allowed; one off Appleton of two-base calibre and a single being given up by Colwell. Each of the three Brooklyn pitchers twirled three innings and Uncle Wilbert gave them to understand from the beginning that they could "cut loose".

The hit-and-run style of play was used almost at every available opportunity. Big Dutch Miller was up five times and was the star pill-paster, getting two triples and two singles. McCarty, next in order of the shining lights, played great ball on first and secured three singles out of five times up. He drew many cheering "hands" and expressions of admiration throughout the game. Stengel and Hickman, in left and center fields, respectively, displayed grand-stand ball, gobbling three hard chances each with ground conditions unfavorable.

The determination of the visitors to make yesterday's game closer than that of the day previous, seemed general among all members of the team, but when Dell began his spectacular work, only ten men could find standing room at the plate in the three innings he pitched and Appleton, following, mowed them down in like manner. Then came the terrific speed pills from the iron arm of Ira Colwell, mixed in with a beautiful change of pace and for the remainder of the game, it was three up and as many down each inning. Only twice did the visitors see the keystone bag: Burdick hit safe for two bags in the fifth but was never able to move as Bradley and Gardiner following, were retired in short order. Burdick, too, was given a stop over on first in the second inning when Priest fumbled. Later he stole second on the pitcher.

Today the players hailing from New York on the steamship, Commanche, are expected to arrive. Embarking at Jacksonville, yesterday, they will arrive here via Florida East Coast railroad this evening.

Among them are Geo. W. Cutshaw, a second baseman, Gustav Getz, a third baseman and Jack Karst, a second baseman. There will also be several newspaper men on the ship among them, L. W. Wooster, of the Brooklyn Times, Thomas Rice, of the Brooklyn Eagle and Jack Rice of the New York World. A number of friends of the team are also expected. Harry H. Monery, an infielder, will arrive soon and Jake Daubert, a first baseman, is expected to arrive.

President Ebbets is looking forward to the assemblage of the entire team with much interest and hopes to make "Ladies' day" popular among the fans of both Daytona and Seabreeze.

Summary:

Two-base hits: Hickman, McCarty, M. Wheat, Burdick. Three-base hits: Stengel, Miller, 2; Olson. Stolen bases: Hickman, Burdick (on pitcher). Double plays: Priest to Olson to McCarty. Base on balls: off Barstow, 4; Dell, 1. Left on bases: Superbas, 9; Stetson, 2. Hits: off Appleton, 2; Barstow, 15. Struck out: by Dell, 2; Appleton, 1; Colwell, 1; Barstow, 2. Time of game: 1 hour and 35 minutes. Umpire: Rigler.

"Eddie" Appleton, of jovial disposition, trotted off toward the "track" in acquiescence to orders from Uncle Wilbert to "get up a heat" and, securing pretty little Miss Clarice Wetherby's bicycle (of feminine build, of course), proceeded awkwardly to peddle around the run-way. All would have gone well but for the fact that

ALLANDALE

THE IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION

Hopes to be able to announce the installation of our Telephone service by next week. This energetic body of workers have other good things under way—we will list a few only:

Prettiest Station Grounds on the Railway.
Bridge Across the Halifax River.
Picnic Grounds at Harbor Point.
Deep Water Pier.
Women's Exchange.
Post Office.
Town Hall.
Library.

HELP THE OTHER FELLOW—HE CAN HELP YOU

That has not been adopted as the slogan of our Association, but it exemplifies the spirit of the organization. They seem to have the belief that "the other fellow" is of the same mind, and that every one is going to do his level best to make ALLANDALE a town of tomorrow.

PUBLIC SPIRIT

There are many towns that lack this most necessary element to inspire one to do his best.

We have the will to do things in ALLANDALE — everybody wants to help. If we prosper it will not be due to our optimism, but to the broad point of view that includes our neighbor's success with ours.

AUCTION SALE of HORSES

SATURDAY, MARCH 11th
At Cannons' Stables, DeLand.

We have just received at our stables a carload of the best general business horses that were ever shipped to this County. Among this lot are some extra good farm mares that are suitable for all kinds of plowing and general work. Several good livery horses and six head of fine saddlers. We have in this carload, three ladies' saddle horses that have been ridden entirely by a lady.

Those in need of a horse of any description should come and look this lot over, as there are some of all sizes to select from. This stock can be seen and tried by any intending purchasers. Private sales will be made, or EXCHANGES with those who desire to exchange.

This stock comes from the best stock farms in TENNESSEE and are all thoroughly broke and ready for immediate service.

Every horse that is not sold before this Saturday NOON will be put up and sold without reserve at auction to the highest bidder. So come and get areal bargain.

EVERY HORSE WILL GO AT AUCTION SALE THIS SATURDAY, MARCH 11TH, BEGINNING PROMPTLY AT 1:00 O'CLOCK, P. M.,

P. G. WALDRON, Shipper.

he got reckless and inadvertently ran across some of the manager's excitement grass which is said to have been treated with a special application of Never-Fail hair tonic. Now when you traverse this sacred spot of Uncle Wilbert's it has the same effect as awkwardly stepping on grandpa's gouty foot, so the enraged manager gave chase. Appleton got up his heat for Uncle Wilbert is no mean racer although handicapped with more than ordinary weight. But the big pitcher, too, is also just a bit faster and outdistanced his chaser. Later Appleton went into the game and from reports from the few men on the Stetson team who faced him in the three innings he pitched, he was warmed up.

Grease the Nail.

All mechanics know that a nail when oiled or greased is much more readily driven through hard woods. Elmer S. Ellis of Pomona, Cal., has devised a receptacle for grease or other lubricant, to be contained in the handle of a hammer into which the nail can be inserted and withdrawn without wasting the lubricant and at little loss of time.—National Magazine.

ARMSTRONG REPLIES TO CITY COMMISSIONERS

SAYS HE THINKS PRESENT CITY HALL AN ATTRACTIVE BUILDING. WOULD BUY OR LEASE IT FOR TELEPHONE EXCHANGE.

As recently noted in the News, the charter commissioners notified E. L. Armstrong that the matter of erecting a new city building was under consideration and in this event it would be necessary for the East Florida Telephone company to find other quarters for its central station, which is now located in the upper part of the city hall building. Incidentally mention was made that this moving of the telephone central would afford an opportunity for installing an up-to-date system in place of that now in use.

This communication was forwarded by the city clerk, A. Milligan, on Feb. 24th, to New London, Conn., and a reply, dated New York, March 6th, was received Thursday by Mr. Milligan.

Mr. Armstrong writes that he had hoped in view of the lease with the city that all telephone troubles were at an end for a few years, but if the commissioners have decided to make the improvements as stated the telephone company would certainly wish to co-operate with them. He said they probably realized that it would be some matter to move a telephone central office and suggested that they might be willing to sell the present city building, or perhaps lease it to the telephone company when the new city building was completed. Or, he questioned, would they not lease the company a part of the old building for a telephone exchange and use the remainder for a storage place for city supplies.

Mr. Armstrong further said that he appreciated the spirit in which the commissioners approached the telephone question. He said he realized the necessity which arose at times for the removal of old landmarks, but the present city hall had always appealed to him as a very attractive building, and personally, he would be sorry to see it removed.

INTERESTING GAME OF GOLF AT ORMOND

The golf game scheduled for yesterday afternoon between the visiting and home professionals took place on the Ormond Beach golf course yesterday afternoon.

Robert G. MacDonald, of the Buffalo Country club, Harry Rees, of Cleveland, and George Merritt, professional at Ormond Beach, played against Jock Hutchinson, of the Allegheny Country club, Pittsburgh, Henry Williams, of Galen Hall, Wernersville, Pa., and Arthur Merritt, of Ormond Beach. The match was a close one, and it was not decided until the last hole. Many of the holes were halved, and at the turn the match was even. There were a number of holes played below par—two threes being made on the tenth—par being 4. Also a three by MacDonald on the 11th is worthy of mention, as par on this hole is 5. MacDonald and Hutchinson made the lowest score, each making a 74 for the eighteen holes.

YOUNG LADIES' PLAY PROVES A SUCCESS

The entertainment given Thursday evening by the Young Ladies' class of the Daytona Beach Methodist church, was a very successful affair financially, as more than $30.00 was taken in at the door.

Nearly 200 persons witnessed the playlet and musical program, in spite of the chilly weather, and all present enjoyed themselves very much.

The program was opened by two piano duets, after which the male quartet, composed of members of the boys' class, sang two selections, which were greatly appreciated by the audience.

After these numbers, the first half of the play, "Not a Man in the House" was presented by five young ladies of the girls' class. As soon as the first part was finished, Miss Gladys Wonnacott sang two soprano solos, and P. Van Horn rendered two very pleasing piano solos, after which the second half of the playlet was presented by the young ladies.

All of the numbers received loud applause and the crowd left for their homes conscious of having received their money's worth of entertainment and fun.

Mrs. C. A. Randall will entertain the members of the Junior choir of the Daytona Beach Methodist church, at her home on Atlantic avenue, next Friday evening. The party will be held in honor of a young lady friend of Mrs. Randall's, who is expected to arrive during the coming week. It will be a regular St. Patrick's Day celebration.

BUFFALO Y. M. C. A. SEC'TY. LEAVES ON TOUR WITH WIFE

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Whitford, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. M. Treglow, at their beautiful residence on Halifax avenue, Daytona Beach, for the last few days, left Thursday morning for points further south along the East Coast. Mr. and Mrs. Whitford have greatly enjoyed their stay here, and are very much in love with the Peninsula and its hospitable citizens.

Mr. Whitford is the general secretary for the Young Men's Christian Association of Buffalo, N. Y., and is resting for a few months during his trip to the South. He made many friends while here, all of whom hope that he may visit Daytona Beach again next winter.

Mr. Whitford addressed the Tourist Class last Sunday morning at the Daytona Beach Methodist church, and delivered a very interesting travelogue in the same building last Tuesday evening. His fine style of speech made his lecture one of interest to all in attendance.

YOUNG PEOPLE HOLD BEACH PARTY ON THURSDAY NIGHT

A number of the young society set of Daytona Beach, held a marshmallow roast on the beach near the ocean pier, Thursday night. Misses Ruby Tilton and Lena Hames gave the party in honor of Messrs. Herbert and Clark, the well known conductors on the Central of Florida Railroad company.

The young people assembled on the beach at nine o'clock and enjoyed dancing on the beach and story telling around the fire until a late hour.

H. H. Adams has arrived from St. Paul, Minn., for an indefinite stay at the Princess Issena.

DAYTONA BEACH LOCALS

T. R. Simpson is making arrangements for moving into his newly acquired home in Marshall Park sometime in the near future.

The regular weekly dance will be given tonight at the Seaside Inn. All guests of the hotel are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. V. DuBois, of Canandaigua, N. Y., have returned to their northern home after a very pleasant stay of three months on the Peninsula. The present was the first winter that they have ever experienced in the south.

The principal work on the Sarah Cornelia Young Memorial library is nearing completion, and Contractor Fuquay hopes to have the fine new building ready for occupancy inside of a few weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Stevens and party of friends motored over from their home in Eustis, Thursday afternoon, and spent a few hours visiting friends at the Pinehurst, on Peninsula Drive.

Workmen in the employ of Branch and Nicholson, have nearly finished the work of grading Halifax avenue, north of First avenue. This street will be completed north to the corner of Halifax avenue and Mitchell place some time in the near future.

The beautiful new brick veneered residence, recently finished by J. M. Dunlap, owner and manager of the Ohio boarding house on Atlantic avenue, will soon be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Dunlap, who have been busy selecting furniture for their new home.

Miss Virginia R. Taylor, who has been visiting at the home of Mrs. L. H. Robbins, on Palmetto street, since November, left this morning on her return to her northern home in Charlottesville, Va. During her season's stay here, Miss Taylor has made many friends, all of whom dislike to have her leave.

Mrs. Frank Smith and daughter, Florence, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Haroun, on Seabreeze avenue, and expect to remain in Daytona Beach for about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Green left this morning on their return trip to their home in Orlando. Mr. and Mrs. Green came over from the interior by auto on pleasure and business, and during their short stay, were located at one of the local hotels.

SEABREEZE PERSONALS

J. C. Shemons, of Aberdeen, S. D., is in Seabreeze for a short stay, and is registered at the Princess Issena.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Radcliff, of Toledo, Ohio, are among the recent registrations at the Princess Issena.

Mrs. A. M. Fish and daughter, Miss Marjorie Fish, of Minneapolis, friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Badgley, have arrived for an indefinite stay at the Princess Issena.

A party consisting of John McKee, L. Wick, J. Mack and Paul Skinner, guests of the Princess Issena, motored to Ormond Thursday, and spent the morning playing golf on the Ormond golf links.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Tudor, of Cincinnati, Ohio, are stopping at the Princess Issena. They are regular season guests at this popular hotel, and their host of friends are glad to have them back.

Miss Leota Coburn has invited a number of her friends to a party at her home on Halifax avenue, next Monday evening, at seven-thirty o'clock.

At the public school practice for Field Day continues along the line of all principal athletic contests, although the boys are most interested in the pole vaulting.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Horton have returned to their home in Minneapolis, Minn., after a very pleasant stay at the Princess Issena. They are great golf enthusiasts, and enjoyed many interesting games on the links in and around Seabreeze during their stay here. They have a wide circle of friends on the beach and were delightfully entertained while here. They speak in high praise of the beach, and are planning to return next season.

Mrs. John Rogers, who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Rogers, on the corner of Halifax avenue, north, and Grandview boulevard, left Thursday afternoon on her return to her northern home in Chicago, Ill. Mrs. Rogers has greatly enjoyed her stay here and expects to come to Seabreeze for another winter next year. Mr. Rogers will stay here for the remainder of the season.

J. R. Briggs, of Melbourne, Australia, who was a visitor here early in the winter, came over from Daytona, Thursday afternoon, for a short visit here before his return to the north.

A large and interested crowd watched the putting contest at the Princess Issena, Thursday afternoon. The clock golf ground, where the contest was held, was surrounded by scores of people, friends and guests of the hotel management, watching the close games.

Moose Teeth of Great Value.
The teeth of a gigantic moose skull found in the sand of a Wisconsin creek bottom have an estimated value of $50 apiece.

Human Desires.
Henri-Frederic Amiel said that humanity is the dupe of its desires. Experience "has two ways of crushing us—by refusing our wishes and by fulfilling them. But he who only wills what God wills escapes both catastrophes."

Ancient St. Andrews.
St. Andrews is the oldest Scotch university, it having been founded in 1411, and, according to an ancient document, "many excellent and noble clerks war brocht out of sindy countries to be preceptours in it."

Palmetto Club Enjoys Stetson Glee Club

The Aeolian Club of Stetson University of DeLand, entertained the members of the Palmetto Club and invited guests, Thursday afternoon, at the Palmetto clubhouse with a delightful concert. The clubhouse was filled to overflowing with ladies and gentlemen who thoroughly enjoyed the splendid efforts of these charming young ladies.

The clubhouse was appropriately decorated with Stetson University pennants displayed in every imaginable place in the white auditorium. The stage was banked with potted ferns, palms and lovely spring flowers. A great Stetson University flag nearly concealed the wall at the rear of the stage. The members of the Palmetto Club who acted as ushers, the president and the hostesses, were gowned in white with ribbons of green and white, the college colors. The members of the Glee Club also were in white, which, combined with the green and white clubhouse, made it an harmonious symphony.

Mrs. Murray L. Stanley, the club president, opened the afternoon's program with several announcements which included the coming of the masque ball which will be given in the Casino Burgoyne on Tuesday evening, March 21st. Also of the repeating, by request, of the Marionettes and Mrs. Jarley's Wax Works, which were so popular at the recent Dicken's carnival. This entertainment will be given in the clubhouse, Thursday evening, March 23rd.

Mrs. Stanley then called upon Mrs. R. S. Maley, the recording secretary of the civics department, to give a report of the total receipts of the Dicken's carnival. Mrs. Maley announced that the total receipts for the carnival and dance were $378.06, $160.75 of which will be devoted to the building fund of the club, $150.75 to the playground fund, and $56.58 to the Casino chair fund. Announcement was then made of the Friday morning musicale which will be given at the Congregational church, March 17th, and the life of the composer, Dudley Buck, will be the subject. Miss May Jolley will be the leader.

Mrs. W. H. Hitchcock, the music department's able and efficient chairman, was then introduced.

This charming lady was presented with a lovely arm bouquet of pink roses, the silent token of her many friends. Mrs. Hitchcock's well chosen remarks were as follows:

"Madam President and Members of the Palmetto Club:

"In behalf of the music department of our club, it gives me much pleasure to introduce to you this afternoon, the young ladies of the Aeolian Club, from the leading university of our state, the John B. Stetson University of DeLand, Florida, whom I feel certain will delightfully entertain us."

Mrs. Hitchcock then introduced Miss Marguerite Blocker, the president of the Aeolian Club, who very sweetly spoke of the Glee Club's pleasure in being able to come to Daytona and entertain the ladies of the Palmetto Club.

The program was splendid. Every number well executed and finished. The girls' ability fairly radiated from their youthful persons, and one of the most pleasing qualities of these fair entertainers which is very apparent, is their unity of spirit, and their earnest desire to please. Any amount of training could not bring out these essentials, were it not for their personalities, and the kind regard for their director, B. V. Guevchenian.

The program:

PART ONE.

1. 'Tis Thy Wedding Morning (Cowen), Aeolian Club.
2. Reading, Miss Mary Hulley.
3. (a) Lethe (Boott), 'Cello obligato.
- (b) A Birthday (Cowen), Miss Frances Sparber.
4. Spring Chorus from Samson and Delilah (Saint Saens), Aeolian Club.
5. Piano Solo (a) Raindrop Prelude (Chopin), (b) Shadow Dance (MacDowell), Miss Louise Hulley.
6. Reading—Miss Mona Bates.
7. Vocal Trio from the "Flower Queen" (Barri), Misses Miller, Fisk and Futch.

PART TWO.

1. Stars of the Summer Night (arranged by W. O. Perkins), Aeolian Club.
2. Piano Solo: Tarantella (Moszkowski), Miss Lillian Wells.
3. Reading (with music accompaniment), Miss Mona Bates.
4. (a) Love Has Eyes (Bishop); (b) When the Roses Bloom (Reinhardt).
5. Vocal Duet: Barcarolle from "The Tales of Hoffman" (Offenbach), Misses Miller and Sparber.

6. (a) Maiden's Wish (Chopin-Claassen), Aeolian Club.

Miss Lillian Wells, pianist, and accompanist, B. V. Guevchenian.

At the conclusion the girls, in unison, sang their John B. Stetson University college song.

At five o'clock a delicious supper was given by the Palmetto club to the young ladies in the Guild Hall, under the direction of Mrs. Celesta Hinks, assisted by Mesdames Graham, Chamberlin and Huston.

The hostesses were Mrs. M. P. Cornwall and Mrs. W. E. Blodgett.

Delightful Party At The Magnolia

The "stunt" party, given at the Magnolia hotel Thursday evening by Mrs. Celeste Hinks, proprietress of that popular hostelry, was one of the most enjoyable of the social functions at the Magnolia this season.

The parlors of the Magnolia presented an animated scene throughout the evening, the interesting program arranged for the occasion, keeping the onlookers in a constant state of pleasant expectancy and merriment.

Miss Mariett Bruske opened the program with two pleasing piano selections and was followed by Mrs. Hinks with a humorous reading which delighted her audience. Next came an effective tableau, entitled "The Bachelor's Reverie," in which C. T. Lamb recalled past loves. The costumes were very unique and mirth provoking in the tableau. Another tableau, by Miss Margaret Wells, followed and was entitled "New York State and Its Products." Then came a banjo solo, "Going or Coming," by R. C. Crippen, who responded to an encore. Mrs. Hinks gave a fetching impersonation of Mme. Melba, which brought forth a storm of applause. This was followed by the presentation of Mrs. Lamb and her friend, McGinty, and the bottle stunt by Mr. and Mrs. Lamb, which especially pleased the children. One of the most humorous stunts of the evening was that of Lochinvar, which was the cause of much laughter. Richard Lamb recited a "Coon" story in a very interesting manner and "Reuben and Rachel," a reading in character by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Short, was well received. Then there was the story of the "One Legged Goose," by Theodore Lamb, and "Oh, Mother, How Pretty the Moon Shines Tonight," by Little Miss Lamb. "Our Choir," by Mrs. J. H. Niver, with local hits for Magnolia guests, was much enjoyed. "Mary Had a Little Lamb," was given by Mrs. Hinks, Mrs. Holihan and the Misses Bowers, Young and Barron acting as Marionettes and was exceedingly funny. "The New Chef," was well acted by F. S. Tarbell, who presented his audience with excellent sponge cake of his own production. An exceedingly pleasant feature of the occasion was the presentation to Mrs. Hinks of a beautiful silk parasol and silk gloves and hose, made on behalf of the guests of the house by Mr. Tarbell in a neat presentation speech. This came as a delightful surprise to the hostess.

At the conclusion of the very entertaining program ice cream and cake were served, after the enjoyment of which those present not guests of the Magnolia took their departure for their various homes, all expressing great enjoyment to their hostess of the very delightful entertainment.

Entertained With Dance at Casino

The Misses Anna and Marion Mabbette of South Palmetto avenue, entertained a number of their young friends at a dance Thursday evening in the Casino Burgoyne. It was a truly enjoyable affair, and the charming qualities of the hostesses were very apparent throughout the evening. The young people danced as if on fairy feet, and when the last note of the music had ceased, the happy young society folk betook themselves to an ice cream parlor across from the casino and enjoyed an ice cream treat. The party was unique and pleasant for all who attended and each and every guest departed sorry that the evening was so soon spent.

Explaining Baldness.

Dr. C. T. Ewart, a Scotch scientist, says his researches have led him to believe that the loss of hair on man's head and other parts of his body is a certain indication of intellectual progress. "This fact," he maintains, "explains to some extent the baldness which is always so prevalent among college professors and members of learned societies."

What "Candle Power" Means.

When we say that a light is a certain candle power we are expressing a measure of brilliancy. Candle power is a definite term fixed by American law as the amount of light given by a candle burning 120 grains of wax per hour. Such candles come six to the pound.

Small Dinner and Auction Bridge Party

Eugene Jones gave a small dinner and bridge party at his home on the corner of Palmetto and Live Oak avenues, Thursday evening. Those present were Mrs. Paul Jones and Miss Sally Guthrie, of Louisville, Ky., and S. Jameson, of New York City. Mrs. Jones took the ladies' prize with a commendable score, a French embroidered lace handkerchief.

ENTERTAINED IN HONOR OF TWO KENTUCKY LADIES

Mrs. C. A. B. Tice entertained a party of friends, Thursday afternoon, from 3 to 5 o'clock at her home on West Magnolia avenue, in honor of Mrs. E. Hernden of Hopkinsville, and Mrs. A. P. Rigsley of Louisville, Ky., who are visiting Mrs. S. P. Meachum, 418 Magnolia avenue, and leave Saturday for their homes.

The afternoon was greatly enjoyed by all present in social conversation and the pleasure of a musical program by Miss Ruth Tice. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Those present in addition to the guests of honor and hostess included Mrs. O. H. Wehner, Mrs. W. L. Vann, Mrs. Arthur Keep, Mrs. S. P. Meachum, Mrs. F. M. Twining, Mrs. M. A. Saxon and Mrs. B. A. Marsae, all of Magnolia avenue.

In Mexican Houses.

There are rarely fireplaces or stoves in Mexican houses. Of course, in the tropics these are not required, but in the cities of the uplands it is often bitterly cold. There is a popular belief that warming the air of a room by artificial heat induces pneumonia, but it is doubtful if this has any real foundation. And the Mexican prefers to shiver under cover of a poncho rather than to sit in comfort and warmth after the European or American fashion.

Discouraged.

Charles, aged six, had been asking his father and mother for some time for a mudguard for the small bicycle which he rode, but the weather conditions had been such that his parents thought the purchase could be deferred. One evening his mother noticed that he had not said his prayers as usual and asked him why. "Well, mamma," said the lad, "I kept praying for that mudguard and when I found there was nuthin' stirrin' I just stopped prayin'."

Obesity Cures.

We are all asking for diets and systems of exercises for reducing the weight, but it must be borne in mind that the reduction of weight must invariably be accompanied by a reduction in strength. This means that the woman who systematically enters upon a dietary bathing and exercise system must give herself over to this entirely, for it will exhaust her strength if it removes the flesh. The woman who does her own housework or the woman who is in business must not undertake bathing, violent physical exercise or bathing and combine with these her regulation work. Physique and nerves cannot endure the strain. A breakdown is inevitable.

Made Jack Sweat.

While enjoying the new-found bliss of the honeymoon a doting bridegroom hired a tandem bicycle and took his bride for an afternoon's roundabout run. The fair lady knew little or nothing about wheeling. The fond husband got his head down and plugged along as hard as a galley-slave every inch of the 33 miles, and when they got to the journey's end the perspiration was streaming from every pore in his anatomy. But not so his charming wife. She stood by as cool and unconcerned as possible, and when the poor benighted had recovered his breath a little, judge of his feelings when she gingerly touched one of the pedals and sweetly inquired: "Oh, Jack, what are these little twirligigs for?"

Expected a Real Boat Ride.

A contest, for the enlargement of the Sunday school, entitled "A Trip to Palestine," had been planned by the superintendent. One mother, whose son George was a member of the school, hearing that the superintendent intended taking the scholars for a boat ride, hastened to remark, "Them can go what wants to, but I don't know whether I'll let George go or not."—National Monthly.

Ideal Metal for Yachts.

Monel metal, an alloy resembling nickel, will probably replace steel and bronze for the construction of yachts. It is tougher than nickel steel, does not corrode, and retains its brightness. Aluminum, the lightest of yacht plates, lasts only a short time in contact with salt water.

Etiquette Rules.

The proper place for a woman in her own automobile or carriage or box at the opera is the right-hand corner. People in this country are not so particular about this as are English and continental, but it is a point worth observing by those who wish to give form and elegance to the daily conduct of life. Ceremony and punctilio can be carried too far, as in India, where the laws governing the manners and practices of the various castes are complicated to an exasperating point. But a society entirely devoid of etiquette is apt to be crude and ungraceful. To draw a line between that ceremonial which makes it a capital offense for a subject to look at the lama of Tibet and the mannerless state of a mining camp is a perfectly possible achievement.

Would Outgrow It.

A Louisville journalist was excessively proud of his little boy, furnishing to the old black nurse, "Auntie," said he stroking the little wate "this boy seems to have a 'journalistic' head." "Oh," cried the untutored old aunty, soothingly, "never you mind bout dat; fah! come right 'r 'fime."

Whoop-ee! Got pinched yesterday.
Yep, got pinched! Got knocked down and dragged in fer smokin'. That's some offence—smokin'. Smoking on a public thoroughfare in Daytona—that's what the law got me for. I paid my fine. Sure! I paid my fine.
What'd you think I'd do—go to jail?
I couldn't go to jail. Just naturally had to pay my fine. You see, the jail was too crowded—they had another man in there. Just to justify myself, I couldn't help smoking. My car was burning too much oil. Any car'll smoke with too much oil.

Now, here's a bit of verse that may interest the bachelors, because it will make 'em think what they might have done, an dit will make the old maids sorry for turning him down (if they ever had the chance), and it will make the married folks laugh. Oh, yes, the married folks'll laugh. They KNOW!

All right, James, turn off the bath He'll be ready to splash after he peruses this:

THEY CALL IT "LOVE."

Forget to go to bed at night,
Forget your coat and tie;
You think that all the world is bright,
The moon is in the sky.

Forget to do your daily chores,
Forget the rain above;
You long to wander out of doors,
When someone whispers "love."

It is a funny sickness, too,
It seems so blamed absurd;
She slips away alone with you,
But you can't say a word.

The world looks on and smiles and smiles,
For humans understand;
You loose yourself in miles and miles,
Of dreams of Romanceland.

So steal her for your lifetime mate,
And take her while you can;
For if you wait for fickle fate,
You'll be an "also ran."

—THE WEATHER MAN,
By Eugene Jones.

JONES' CARNIVAL BE HERE EARLY MONDAY

Johnny J. Jones big carnival aggregation will open up in Daytona next Monday and will be located on the city island for the entire week.

That the carnival has a mission, is an undeniable fact that it has come to stay, is evidenced from the fact that they are securing a stronger hold upon the middle classes who cannot afford expensive trips abroad and to the larger cities.

The man of means takes his vacation during the heated term and with wife and children takes a rest from his business to the watering places, mountains and even to the foreign countries.

All these beauty spots have their forms of amusement—Boardwalk at Atlantic City, Luna Park and Bowery of Coney Island; Black Pool, London; Paris Court, Paris, its White City—in fact, all the world reveals in playgrounds for those who are fortunate enough to be able to enjoy them. But how about those whose means are such as to prohibit this expenditure in travel and luxury? All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy.

The walls of the work shop become a mockery and the workman pines for a little festivity, and he looks with covetousness upon the favored few.
He loves his family and feels that he is but a machine so far as affording them a little recreation. He has the heart and soul and love, but the lighter side of life would be lost to him were it not for these combinations which bring to his very doors the same feature (modified to be sure), as are seen at the world's merry-making resorts. The cost is nominal and within his reach. He can take his whole family and has the opportunity to select that which appeals to his fancy, and when he returns to his labors he is little poorer in pocket, still rich in the memory of the fact that he has contributed to the happiness of his own. Johnny Jones has taken all these facts into consideration and has arranged for a program of events to which all are invited.

The wild animals are instructive and all the larger cities have their zoological gardens. Mr. Jones brings these little things to our very doors, and then a little singing, dancing, vaudeville, minstrelsy and the riding devices. An evening or an afternoon in the open air is a healthy requisition which nature makes for its subjects.

There are the curious people, the side shows, the upside down riders, bands of music and orchestra.

There is a human animation in the carnival structure which is not found in any other ranch of the show world.
Soul meets soul in sensible jest, laughter and sweet music, and then comes contentment and rest. Build the carnival well, then, that it may endure.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Blakeslee, well known people of Chicago, are among the recent arrivals at the Ridgewood where they are expected to remain for an indefinite sojourn.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Reed, of Milwaukee, and Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson, of the same place, prominent residents of Wisconsin's largest city are visitors to Daytona for a prolonged stay, and are registered at the Ridgewood hotel for their sojourn.

which will increase in value each year and at the same time guarantee you the finest location in Florida where you can build your home for the winter or all the year. Cottages in this section of the Peninsula are in demand the year round. In the winter by Northern and Western people and in the summer by the permanent Floridian residents from the central part of the state.

ORTONA is the beginning of a new city. Cottages are being built, complete water system installed, streets shelled from river to ocean, concrete approach to ocean now built and in use to drive on or off the beach, other improvements being carried out as fast as money and time can accomplish them. NOW is the time to purchase at original prices.

Would You Spend Your Winter in Florida if it cost you no more than staying at home?

Come to ORTONA and we will explain how this is feasible. A call at our local office with A. E. Donnelly, real estate, Daytona, will be all that is necessary to provide you an afternoon's outing as our guest.

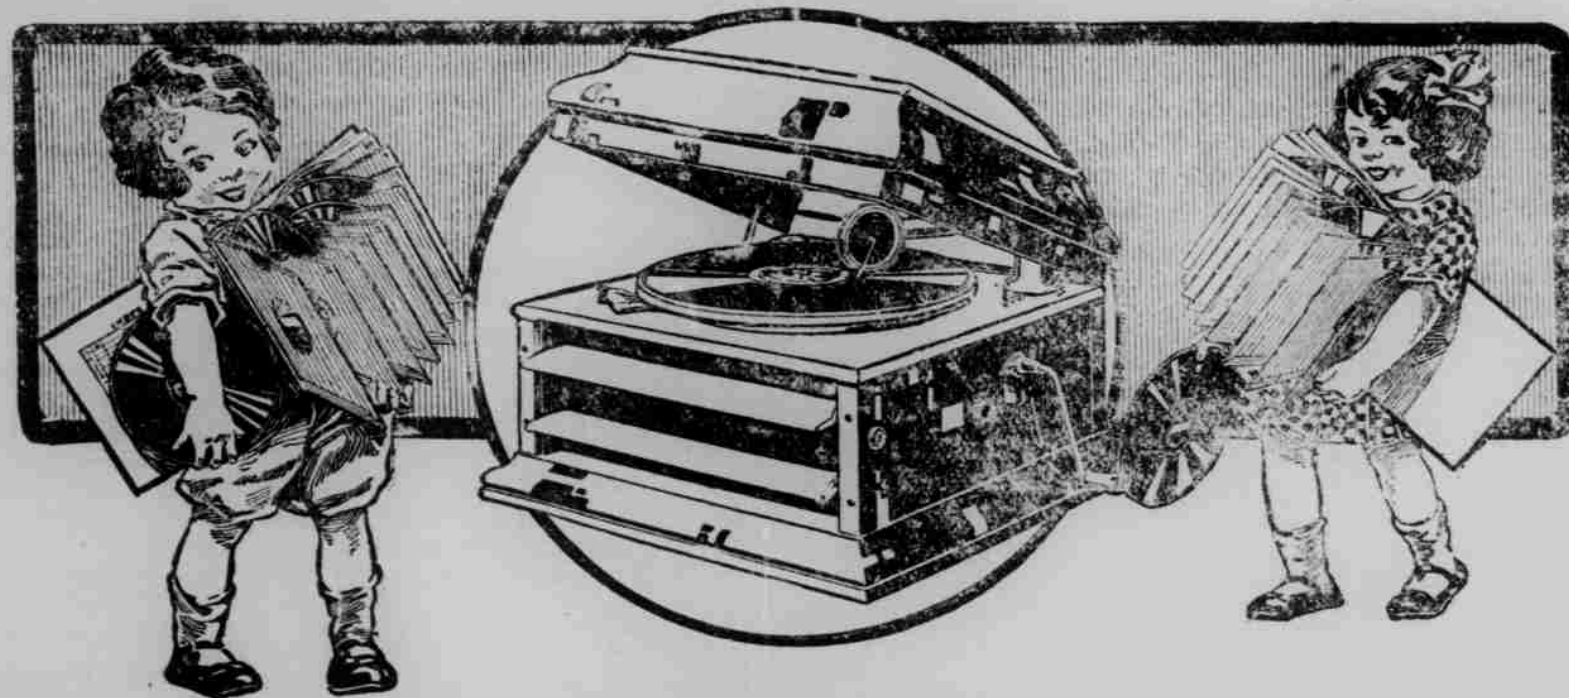

We have boats and automobiles which are in readiness to take you to ORTONA, the one favored spot in Florida.

Invite your friends and enjoy the day. Absolutely FREE.

GEM CITY MINSTRELS WILL SHOW TONIGHT

There is still an opportunity to secure seats for the performance this evening of the Gem City Minstrels in the New Daytona theater, but the matter should not be longer neglected for any seats unsold will be quickly when the box office is opened.

Visitors in the city who have never had the opportunity of hearing and seeing the Gem City Minstrels will be surprised at the exhibition of local talent both in music and comedy and those of the residents who attended the performance of the troupe last fall will find an entirely new program of songs and specialties provided on this occasion while considerable new talent will be presented.

The performance is one that would attract attention anywhere and provides an evening of musical entertainment and laughter while the proceeds will go to the support of a summer baseball in this city. Tickets may still be procured at Hankins Drug Store.

Wanted His Orders Direct.

A rather quaint yarn concerns a certain general officer who was so misguided as to take his son with him as aid. The well-meaning young man, delivering an order to an artillery brigadier, who was feeling a bit liverish that morning, unwisely said: "If you please, my father wants you to move your guns to so and so." "Very well, my boy," replied the brigadier. Now run along and see what your mother wants done!"

"THE HOMESTEADER" AT THE ARCADE SATURDAY

This year's greatest David Horsely production is "The Homesteader," featuring Margaret Gibson and Jack Bonarita, in which the Bostock animals play a leading part, will be the attraction at the Arcade theater, Saturday. This wonderful picture of a western homesteader's troubles will be followed by the excruciatingly funny play, "Alias Mr. Jones," with Bud Ross and Rea Martin in the leading roles, and last, but not least, a side-splitter in the laughing line, entitled "Jerry in the Movies."

Saturday will be Dolly night. Every child present will receive a nice doll as a souvenir of the occasion. They will range in sizes from little dolls to great big ones. There will be lots of fun, and you should not fail to be present. The gala night of the season will long be remembered by the children.

"CAMEO KIRBY" AT THE CRESCENT SATURDAY

"Cameo" Kirby, so called because of his fondness for cameos, is the son of a New Orleans plantation owner who dies insolvent. When the plantation and slaves are sold at auction, Cameo's favorite body-servant is bought by one of his father's old friends, John Randall.

After the sale, Kirby and Randall start north on one of the Mississippi River boats. Randall meets an acquaintance by the name of Col. Moreau, and after losing heavily to the Colonel on a wager concerning a race between the boat on which they are traveling and another river steamer, consents to a game of poker to get satisfaction. Kirby, who, through his friendship for a certain gambler, is himself adept at the manipulation of cards, suspects that Moreau is not playing an honest game, and finally succeeds in forcing himself in and taking a hand. Randall, having lost all his money, wagers his home. The hand is played, and Kirby wins. Moreau accuses Kirby of cheating, and Randall, not appreciating that Kirby has won only to prevent the estate from falling into the hands of Moreau, shoots himself.

When the body is taken ashore, Kirby meets Adele Randall, the daughter of the dead man, and immediately falls in love with her. But he stands in a very bad light—as a man who has taken the very home from a friend who has just assisted him—and, of course, he is held responsible for the suicide. Tom Randall, the son of the suicide, swears to avenge his father. When Moreau and Kirby fight a duel, with results fatal to Moreau, Tom takes the gun from Moreau's body in order that it may appear he was shot while having no weapon with which to defend himself. Kirby is accused of murder and becomes a fugitive from justice. In these black hours, he manages to see Adele, and to tell her the truth with such sincerity that she believes him and shelters him from the mob.

Finally, Moreau's pistol is found in the possession of Tom, whose forced confession frees Kirby from the charge of murder. When, in addition to this, the deed for the Randall house which Kirby has sent to the Randall family actually turns up, of course Cameo stands forth again in his true colors as a chivalrous Southern gentleman. On his solemn promise to give up cards and all kinds of gambling, Cameo Kirby is betrothed to Adele Randall.

"THE DICTATOR" AT THE NEW DAYTONA SATURDAY

John Barrymore, whose every appearance on the screen insures a carnival of mirth, attains a genuine laugh-triumph in the Famous Players Film Company's thrillingly humorous photo-adaptation of the popular stage success, "The Dictator," by the celebrated author, Richard Harding Davis.

The central character of this famous comedy-drama is Brooke Travlers, a young American, who is forced by existing and exciting circumstances to become temporarily the Dictator of a small republic in South America, and who in doing so becomes the hero of many momentous situations, some comic, and some very serious indeed.

From all of which he emerges the victor, through the aid of his clever wit and never-failing audacity, and is finally rescued from his predicament by a kindly fate in the substantial guise of an American battleship.

Produced in Cuba, the film version of "The Dictator" adheres in atmospheric detail to all the requirements of the unusual story, while John Barrymore's personal success cannot be exaggerated.

"HER DEBT OF HONOR"
AT CRYSTAL SATURDAY

Marion Delmar's father, an architect, has died without an estate, but from time to time, a certain Varcoe, a member of her father's profession, has sent her a monthly remittance, which enables her to live modestly and study painting. Varcoe dies, leaving no instructions regarding the remittance, and no reason why his son, Olin, should continue it.

John Hartfield, whose father is an able lawyer, is a friend of Marian, and she goes to him for advice, when her remittance fails to arrive. After an investigation, Hartfield tells Marian that the money given her was out of charity and that the son of the late Varcoe is dying after a life of wild dissipation.

Marion revolts at the idea that she has been an object of charity, and against the pleadings of John determines to pay back the debt by nursing Olin Varcoe back to health. She goes to the old Varcoe home on the St. Lawrence, where she succeeds in obtaining a place as nurse. The Varcoe home is one of mystery. In the house lives Mrs. Varcoe, the supposed mother of Olin, whom he has never seen. She has been an invalid for years, and a recluse in a secluded part of the house.

A strong attachment spring up between Marian and Mrs. Varcoe. Mrs. Varcoe seems to fear and detest her supposed son, the first time they meet. Through the finding of papers in a secret compartment in the home, John discovers that Marian's father had been the real brains behind the enterprise that made Varcoe a financial success, and that the remittance to Marian was the result of an agreement between them. It is also discovered that Olin is not Mrs. Varcoe's son, but the offspring of an affair his father had with an Indian girl. This, it is found, accounts for Olin's morbid disposition.

John prevails upon Marian to leave the place, since she has fulfilled her obligation. She arranges to go and Olin gives a farewell party before he passes away. Olin invites a number of friends from the city for the weekend, and one of them, Granger, attempts to assault Marian. He is killed in a mysterious manner before he accomplishes his purpose. Olin traps Marian in a secret passage, but she is rescued by John and Olin is wounded. Olin crawls to the Indian huts on his estate where his mother's tribe dwell, and the father of an Indian girl he has wronged kills him. After proving Marian's interest in the Varcoe fortune, John leaves with her and they are married.

CASINO PICTURE WAS MADE BY COURSEN

Through a misunderstanding, credit was given in yesterday's issue of the Daily News to R. H. LeSesne for the making of the picture of the Casino Burlesque when it properly belonged to W. L. Coursen. The photograph was made by Mr. Coursen, and he is, therefore, providing the cards at cost to the various stores, to be sold at ten cents each, for the benefit of the Casino chair fund, the profit on the cards being five cents each, being devoted to the fund. These cards should and probably will be purchased in large numbers by visitors and residents and should be distributed to friends and relatives at a distance to let them see what a beautiful building has been presented to Daytona by Commodore Burgoyne.

The Australian bushmen with only a shelter from the rain, and if they can find a cave or overhanging rock that will shelter them they will build no house. If there is no such natural shelter they select a place where small trees or bushes grow together and weave the branches together and cover them with grass. This forms a roof to keep off the rain.

Watch Your Manner.

As a rule courtesy receives courtesy. Many times a rudeness which we resent was called out by something on the way in our own conduct. A child will very often speak impudently to one who addresses him roughly, while courtesy begets courtesy by answers in kind. The girl who is continually encountering rudeness had better make a study of her own manner.

THE CHAIR FUND RECEIVES BOOST

COMMODORE BURGUYNE RECEIVES VOTE OF THANKS AND CHECK FROM PALMETTO CLUB FOR CASINO CHAIR FUND.

Commodore Burgoyne, always a favorite with the gentler sex, gets a letter from the ladies of the Palmetto Club, enclosing both thanks and money.

The letter:

Dear Commodore Burgoyne:

At a special meeting of the club department of the Palmetto Club, yesterday, a motion was carried to send you a vote of thanks for your courtesy in giving up the use of the Casino and the ball, last Saturday evening. I also enclose check, being one-third of the net proceeds of the Diskette dance, for the "Chair Fund."

Again thanking you.

Very sincerely,

EDITH NEWELL,

March eighth, Secretary.

The check:

Merchants Bank: Pay to the order of the Casino Chair Fund, fifty-eight dollars and fifty-eight cents.

MRS. R. S. MALEY,

Treasurer.

In this connection, the News again calls attention to the picture postcard of the Casino with the bust of the donor tucked away in the north-west corner. This postcard is on sale at all of the principal stores at the modest sum of ten cents. The "profit"—six cents—goes to the Casino Chair Fund, which, by the way, is a very elastic term, and covers a lot of other things besides chairs.

Those of our own people and visitors who feel an interest in Daytona's best asset, and have a burning desire to aid in making the smile on the Commodore's handsome physiognomy permanent, can do so by investing their surplus income in picture postcards.

New Stars.

Many questions have been asked in regard to the probable fate of new stars, after they have ceased to attract special attention. It has been shown that even stars which have appeared in recent years have been converted into nebulae, and later, in many cases, into extremely faint stars of apparently normal condition.

Did It, Even Then?

No doubt the weather forecaster of Noah's day spluttered something about "a delusion of precipitation" as he went down for the third time.

GENERAL MGR. A. C. L. VISITS FRIENDS HERE

P. B. Albright, general manager of the Atlantic Coast Line, arrived in Daytona this morning in his private car, accompanied by Mrs. Albright, for a brief visit with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Conklin and daughter, Miss Bea Conklin, of Minneapolis, Minn., who are occupying for the season one of L. Adler's houses on Magnolia Avenue. Mr. Albright, whose home is in Wilmington, N. C., is enjoying a short vacation from his exacting duties for the benefit of rest and recuperation. Prior to coming to Daytona, Mr. and Mrs. Albright visited Bellamy and other points on the Coast Line in the western part of the state. They were here for only a few hours, arriving last night and departing this afternoon. Miss Albright visited Miss Conklin for several weeks earlier in the season.
